WORLDS MOST POTENT WINES THAT PROTECT AGAINST HEART DISEASE

Wise Woman

French woman Jeanne Louise Calment lived to 122 years old. In 1993 Calment was declared the oldest person who had ever lived. This was 4 years before her death.

So, to reassure you at Christmas about your love of chocolate –

Jeanne is reported to have eaten 1kg of dark chocolate per week. Did you know it is the same heart healthy antioxidant Procyanidin in the chocolate that is also so rich in our wines. So our wines (in moderation), some apples, walnuts, dark chocolate and other foods high in procyanidins should be part of your health policy in 2009.

The photo is of Calment aged 60.

The Final Word

Seasons Greetings to all our customers and subscribers. Have a safe and joyful festive season with family and friends. Enjoy the fine weather (we hope) and really take the time to relax and recharge for 2009. We truly appreciate the support from you all in 2008.

Merry Christmas from Erica, Rob and Lifestylewines
